The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION #.

2003 ASSEMBLY BILL 119

March 5, 2003 – Introduced by Representatives Seratti, Freese, Gunderson, Vrakas, Hines, Ladwig, Hahn, Stone, Ott, Kestell, Albers, Kreibich, Owens, Musser and Pettis, cosponsored by Senator Harsdorf. Referred to Committee on Campaigns and Elections.

AN ACT to amend 11.06 (1) (intro.), 11.06 (3) (b) (intro.) and 11.12 (4); to repeal and recreate 11.06 (1), 11.06 (3) (b) (intro.) and 11.12 (4) of the statutes; and to affect 2001 Wisconsin Act 109, section 9115 (2y) (b); relating to: reporting of information by nonresident registrants under the campaign finance law.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

2001 Wisconsin Act 109 made various changes to campaign finance, ethics, lobbying regulation, income tax, public broadcasting, and cable television laws. Most changes made by Act 100 take effect on July 1, 2003. Most of these changes were made nonseverable so that if a court found that any of the provisions were unconstitutional all of the provisions would then be invalid. On December 11, 2002, in Wisconsin Realtors Association et al. v. Ponto et al., Case No. 02–C–424–C, the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin found that one provision of Act 109 is unconstitutional. While this decision is subject to appear, it apparently precludes enforcement and administration of all affected Act 109 changes as of December 11, 2002. The Act 109 changes, however, currently remain in the statutes.

This bill reenacts certain changes made by Act 109 to the campaign finance law effective on the day on which the bill becomes law. In the description which follows, current law means the law in effect before July 1, 2008.

Under current law, with certain exceptions, registrants under the campaign finance law are required to file regular reports with the appropriate filing officer or agency. The reports must identify contributors of more than $20 cumulatively within a calendar year; the occupation and principal place of employment, if any, of each campaign committees and political party committees are generally subject to a limitation upon the contributions that they may make to candidates for legislative office or to political parties. Legislative campaign committees are subject only to overall limitations on the aggregate contributions that may be accepted by a candidate from entities other than individuals.

This bill eliminates the special status of legislative campaign committees, thus causing them to be treated in the same manner as other special interest committees for the purpose of contribution limitations.

This change was included in Act 109.

OTHER CONTRIBUTION RESTRICTIONS

This bill creates the following new prohibitions on contributions:

T. It prohibits contribution to incumbent who are seeking reelection to a partisan state office from the first Monday in January of each odd-numbered year through the enactment of the biennial budget act. The prohibition does not apply to contributions made to an incumbent who is subject to a recall election from the date on which the petition for a recall election is filed until the date of the recall election.

This change was included in Act 109. 2. It prohibits any committee from making a contribution to any special interest committee. The prohibition does not apply to a committee that is affiliated with a labor organization that transfers a contribution to another committee that is affiliated with the same labor organization.

Act 109 contained a similar but not identical provision.

3. It prohibits an elective state official or personal campaign committee of an elective state official from soliciting a lobbyist or principal (person who employs a lobbyist) to arrange for another person to make a contribution to that official or personal campaign committee or to another elective state official or the personal dampaign committee of that official.

Act 109 did not include this change.

Currently, if a registrant receives a contribution, the registrant must deposit the contribution in its campaign depository account no later than the end of the fifth business day commencing after receipt, unless the registrant returns the contribution before that time. A registrant must report the occupation and principal place of employment of any individual who makes any contribution or contributions to a registrant exceeding $100 in amount or value cumulatively within a calendar year. This bill provides that whenever a registrant receives a contribution in the form of money the registrant must obtain this information from a contributor, if required, before depositing the contributor's contribution in its campaign depository account. Under the bill, if the registrant does not obtain the required information within the period prescribed for making deposits, the registrant must return the contribution.

Act 109 did not include this change.

CONTRIBUTIONS THROUGH CONDUITS

Currently, if an individual or organization receives a political contribution consisting of money and transfers the contribution to another individual or organization without exercising discretion as to the amount to be transferred and the 11.25 (2) (b) Notwithstanding par. (a), a registrant may accept contributions and make disbursements from a campaign depository account for the purpose of making expenditures in connection with a campaign for national office; for payment of civil penalties incurred by the registrant under this chapter but not under any other chapter; or for payment of the expenses of nonpartisan campaigns to increase voter registration or participation. Notwithstanding par. (a), a personal campaign committee or support committee may accept contributions and make disbursements from a campaign depository account for payment of inaugural expenses of an individual who is elected to state or local office. If such expenses are paid from contributions made to the campaign depository account, they are reportable under s. 11.06 (1) as disbursements. Otherwise, such expenses are not reportable under s. 11.06 (1). If contributions from the campaign depository account are used for such expenses, they are subject to s. 11.26.

SECTION 88. 11.26 (1) (intro.) of the statutes, as affected by 2001 Wisconsin Act 109, is repealed and recreated to read:

11.26 (1) (intro.) No individual, except an individual serving as a conduit, may make any contribution or contributions to a candidate for election or nomination to any of the following offices and to any individual or committee under s. 11.06 (7) acting solely in support of such a candidate or solely in opposition to the candidate's opponent to the extent of more than a total of the amounts specified per candidate:

2003 BILL

Inn. Cat

AN ACT to repeal and recreate 11.24 (4) of the statutes; and to affect 2001

Wisconsin Act 109, section 9115 (2y) (b); relating to: restriction of political contributions to certain elective state officials and committees.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

2001 Wisconsin Act 109 made various changes to campaign finance, ethics, lobbying regulation, income tax, public broadcasting, and cable television laws. Most of these changes were made nonseverable so that if a court found that any of the provisions were unconstitutional all of the provisions would then be invalid. On December 11, 2002, in Wisconsin Realtors Association et al. v. Ponte et al., Case No. 02-C-424-C, the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin found that one provision of Act 109 is unconstitutional. This decision apparently precludes enforcement and administration of all affected Act 109 changes as of December 11, 2002. The Act 109 changes, however, currently remain in the statutes.

This bill reenacts the changes described below that were made by Act 109 to the campaign finance law.

The bill prohibits any centribution to antipolicumbent partisan elective state official or his or her personal campaign or authorized support committee for the Politica purpose of promoting his or her nomination or reelection to the office held by the official during the period from the first Monday in January of each odd-numbered year through the date of enactment of the biennial budget act. The prohibition does not apply to contributions made to an incumbent who is subject to a recall election from the date on which the petition for a recall election is filed until the date of the recall election. official Violators are subject to a forfeiture (civil penalty) of treble the amount or value of any unlawful contribution. Intentional violators are guilty of a misdemeanor and may be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than six months or both.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 11.24 (4) of the statutes, as created by 2001 Wisconsin Act 109, is repealed and recreated to read:

elective official or to the personal campaign committee or support committee may accept any contribution of promoting that authorized under s. 11.05 (3) (p) of that official for the purpose of promoting that official's nomination or reelection to the office held by the official during the period beginning on the first Monday of January in each odd-numbered year and ending on the date of enactment of the biennial budget act.
